Banners on Loch Street

A Derby Christmas Banner Competition 2023

Info Pack

Banners on Loch Street – Art Competition:

Banners on Loch Street is a new Christmas banner designing competition! Fresh to Derby!

This competition will result in Christmas banners being displayed down Loch Street apart of the Banners on Loch project. These banners will be selected through community submissions.

All that is required is to fill in the entry sheet and submit a design of your own!

This competition has three categories;

- Adult – 18 years and older
- Secondary School – 12-17 years old
- Primary School – 12 years and under

A winner from each category will be selected, as well as an overall competition winner (this can be chosen from any category).

At the end of the competition 20 artistic designs will be chosen to be displayed throughout Derby town. This will include 10 from the adult category and 5 from each of the school categories. These will include the overall prize winners' designs.

Prizes

For all three category the winners receive a $100 voucher Kimberley Electrical. And the overall winner receives a $200 voucher Kimberley Electrical

So, if you get a chance, don't miss out on exploring this colourful and imaginative world of banners for the first time Derby Christmas Banner Competition. You'll be inspired by the talent on display and amazed at how art can turn ordinary spaces into something truly extraordinary.
